SCHOLARSHIPS AND AWARDS
PRESENTED TO PHARMACY STUDENTS

MISSOULA---

Scholarships and other awards were presented to 11 seniors and undergraduates at the University of Montana School of Pharmacy Annual Awards Banquet, Tuesday evening at the University Center.

Scholarships provided by the American Foundation for Pharmaceutical Education amounting to $200 each were awarded to a junior, Daniel Stahley of Bridger, and to seniors, Nadine Wulf, Deer Lodge, and Patricia Peacock, Juneau, Alaska. High scholarship is a requisite for eligibility for these awards.

The Davis Brothers scholarship of $375 went to Stephen B. Oke, Great Falls, in recognition of his scholastic excellence and research potential.

Three Sidney J. Coffee Scholarships were won by Stephen Mathison, Missoula; Elizabeth I. Grmoljez, Butte; and Michael Gransbery, Anaconda, $200 each.

The John Dargavel Memorial Scholarship of $200 was received by Patricia Wilson, Helena. Senior awards in recognition of scholarship, service and professional activities were awarded by vote of the faculty.

The Lilly Achievement Award, a gold medal, for highest scholastic rank, went to James E. O'Connor, Missoula, who also won both the Bristol Award for excellence in dispensing courses, and the Johnson & Johnson Mortar and Pestle for recognition of high performance in business courses in the pharmacy curriculum. The Kappa Psi Scholarship Award consisting of a certificate and a key also was awarded to O'Connor.

The Merck Award, a copy of the Merck Index and the Merck Manual, presented to the senior with the greatest potential for research, went to Kathryn McConnell, Missoula.

Mitchell Homi, Bozeman, was selected by the faculty to receive the Rexall Company Bronze Mortar and Pestle trophy for his leadership and dedication to professional activities in the school.

Homi also received the presidential citation for his past year's activities as president of the local student chapter of the American Pharmaceutical Association.
